

Narrative Reports Information

Narrative sprinkler reports are available to member companies and their agents upon request. These are in-depth reports on sprinkler buildings that include a diagram. These reports contain detailed information with most of the importance placed on the sprinkler system. Other information provided includes construction, occupancy, hazards, exposures and credits.