

Tentative Rates Information

PIAL can develop a tentative rate for a specifically rated building. The "Tentative Rates" program in RAPID is easy to complete.

Information required includes:

Distribution Area of risk.

Occupancy Code.

Is the building fully sprinklered?

Construction Code.

Number of tenants.

Protection Class.

Once all information is entered, a tentative rate is calculated. Understand that this result is tentative and represents an estimate.